

DUTY TO PEOPLE
IS PARAMOUNT

The President Does Not Fear Effects of Political Influence in Present
Investigations

SEEK THE GUILTY

Republicans Who Have Broken the Laws Must Pay the Penalty for Crime.

Washington, Nov. 3.—As illustrating President Roosevelt's attitude on the postoffice scandal and his intention to allow neither political nor social reasons to keep him from going to the bottom, without fear or favor, an important letter written by him has just found its way to print through the medium of the Review of Reviews, edited by Dr. Albert Shaw. This letter, marked "personal," was sent by the president to "a certain congressman" and is printed without names and without the announcement that it was "personal." Intended for the public, but rather to make clear in a private way to certain politicians that no further support must be made to use political argument for the sake of affecting the president's conduct in his plan of duty.

Doesn't Care for Influence.
In this letter the president says: "The statement alleged to have been made by the inspector that I 'ordered' the indictment of — or anyone else, is a lie—just as much a lie as if it had been stated that I ordered that anyone should not be indicted."

"My directions have been explicit and are explicit now. Anyone who is guilty is to be prosecuted with the utmost vigor of the law, and no one who is not guilty is to be touched. I care not a rap for the political or social influence of any human being when the question is one of his guilt or innocence in such a matter as the corruption of the government service. No Fear of Defection.

"I doubt what you say, that the circulation of this report about me may alienate the support of many of my friends from my administration. Frankly, I feel that anyone who would believe such a story must be either lacking in intelligence or else possessed of malignant credulity. If any one is to be alienated from me by the fact that I direct the prosecution of Republican or Democrat, without regard to his political or social standing, when it appears that he is guilty of gross wrongdoing, why, all I can say is, let him be alienated.

Nation's Welfare First.
"If the district attorney has anything which should be known to the Attorney General or to me as regards this suit, I should be delighted to see him. But, frankly, I have not the slightest desire to see him in his visit to be in the interest of the welfare of the party or of my success."

"In a case like this, where the crime charged is one that strikes at the foundation of the commonwealth, I should hold myself unfit for this office if I considered for one moment either my own welfare or the interest of the party, or anything else except the interests of justice."

That this letter refers to the case of State Senator George Green of Birmingham, N. Y., is believed here, and is not denied. It is not denied or affirmed at the White House that the letter was sent to Congressman John W. Dwight of Dryden, N. Y., who is credited here with having received it.

KRUGER SEES A
BOER TRIUMPH

Britain Said To Be Stultifying Dutch
Hopes by Placiating Germany.

Mentone, Nov. 3.—Paul Kruger, former president of the Transvaal republic, replying today to the gift of a statue from subscribers to the Patrie, said:

"I do not despair. A man of my age has no further earthly expectations, but the younger generation will witness the triumph of this justice and see the realization of our experience and patience."

The Patrie says the Boers relied on German promises, but Great Britain succeeded in gaining German neutrality. It will also be shown that the Boers planned to cripple British commerce with privateers, but Mr. Kruger interfered.

In Justice Court: In Justice Reed's court today the case of Herman Kath vs. Thomas Nolan for back rent alleged to be due on River street saloon property, Gustavus C. Splittstosser being garnished in this action, was adjourned until Tuesday next when it will be tried. The attorneys for plaintiff and defendant are J. J. Cunningham and J. L. Fisher. The case of Hutchinson & Son vs. Johnson & Stevens was yesterday adjourned until Nov. 13.

IS YET TO PROVE
CHILD HER OWN

Testimony of the Countess Kwilecki, on Trial in Berlin, Leaves Result in Doubt.

Berlin, Nov. 3.—At today's session of the court which is trying the Countess Wierska Kwilecki on the charge of substituting the son of a peasant girl as her own six years ago in order that he might become heir to a large estate in Posen, Dr. Rosinski, the family physician, testified that he came to Berlin from Posen, in answer to telegrams from the countess, and visited her the night after the birth of the ostensible son. The countess persistently refused to permit the doctor to examine her. The doctor's request to examine the child was also refused. The doctor had his doubts, and they were only removed by the assurances of two noble Polish women, Countess von Moszewska and Von Koszowska, who asserted that they were present at the birth. Afterward they admitted they were absent.

Berlin, Nov. 3.—A dispatch to the Tageblatt at Posen says that a bloody conflict between 500 Jews and a force of Russian gendarmes took place at Warsaw on Saturday during the enlisting of recruits. The wounded on both sides numbered over forty persons, several of them sustaining fatal injuries.

BUREAU CROP SUMMARY
GENERALLY FAVORABLE

Farming Operations in October Suffer Delay on Account of Dryness of the Soil.

Washington, Nov. 3.—The crop summary issued by the weather bureau says as a whole October averaged mild and was generally favorable for farming operations, although plowing and fall seeding were delayed on account of dry soil in portions of the central Mississippi and Ohio valleys, and late crops in the central and east Gulf states suffered from drought. The middle Atlantic states experienced abnormally heavy rains and very high winds during the latter part of the first decade, causing damaging freshets in northern New Jersey and southeastern New York. Heavy and killing frosts occurred in the central and east Gulf and south Atlantic states from the 25th to the 28th, with freezing temperatures as far south as the northern portions of Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia and South Carolina.

The month was generally favorable for cotton picking, which work is nearly completed over a large part of the central and eastern districts of the cotton belt, and is progressing rapidly in Arkansas, Oklahoma and north-eastern Texas, where much of the crop remains to be gathered.

In the central Gulf states, Ohio Valley and the states of the middle Rocky Mountain slope the absence of rain has materially interfered with fall seeding and the germination of sown grain. In the Missouri Valley lake region and middle Atlantic states plowing and seeding have been carried on under favorable conditions and germination has been satisfactory.

OHIO APPEARS TO BE QUIET

Iowa Does Not Seem To Be Polling a
Very Heavy Vote—Boston Republican.

(Special By Scripps-Mellae.)
New York, Nov. 3.—The voting is progressing rapidly and very quietly today. The weather is mild and a full vote is coming out. Hundreds of men are watching the polls for flounders. The betting closed last night with McCallan a favorite over Low; every indication this morning points to the race being a very close one.

In Iowa
Des Moines, Nov. 3.—Cloudy weather prevails throughout the state today. Early this morning the reports indicate that the farmer vote is coming out very slowly. Democrats predict that the weather conditions will greatly reduce republican majority but republicans adhere to the predictions that they will carry the state by at least sixty-five thousand.

Out in Omaha
Omaha, Nov. 3.—The apathy that has marked the campaign in this state was emphasized this morning when the polls opened. The early voters were very few and scattered. Only three state officers are to be elected and a justice of the supreme court and two university regents.

In San Francisco
San Francisco, Nov. 3.—A very heavy vote was polled this morning and everything points to the reelection of Mayor Schmitz although many republicans realizing the hopelessness of Henry Crocker's election are casting their ballots for Franklin Lane, democrat.

In Colorado
Denver, Nov. 3.—A light vote is being polled throughout the state. Little interest is being exhibited as only the justice of the supreme court is to be elected.

Among the Mormons
Salt Lake, Nov. 3.—A heavy vote is being polled in the municipal elections, the race being very close.

Boston Republican

In Kentucky
Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 3.—Reports from all over the state are to the effect that a heavy vote is being polled and that the weather is clear.

Republicans' Heavy Vote

Noted Anarchist from New York
Captured in Barcelona.

(Special by Scripps-Mellae.)

Madrid, Nov. 3.—An anarchist named Juan Casademont, who is recently from New York, has been arrested in Barcelona on the charge of being a suspicious character. When searched at the police station documents were found on his person that proclaim him to be the agent of a secret organization whose purpose it is to kill the king of Portugal and that Casademont was the agent chosen to commit the deed and that he was on his way to Lisbon to commit the act when arrested.

COMBES THINKS
HE WILL RETIRE

French Premier Is Said To Be Contemplating Leaving Politics for Private Life.

Paris, Nov. 3.—Premier Combes has not yet answered the report that he is likely to retire, but it is generally believed in political circles that he is considering the advisability of so doing. The Journal des Debats has reason to believe that no decision has yet been reached, and that in any event the premier will retain power for some time to come. It is said M. Combes is not only irritated at the recent reduced majority of the government in minor votes in the chamber but is apprehensive that the socialist group will not support some of the government's economic measures which are to be presented to parliament in December and January.

Capetown, Nov. 3.—The German consul says that Damaraland is in revolt. A German noncommissioned officer commanding at Warmbad has been killed and the chief of the rebels shot down. Other rumors that a commanding officer and another body of troops have been killed indicate a greater disaster.

APPEAL TO AMERICA
TO CHECK CZAR IN CHINA

United States Is Requested to Protest Against the Occupation of Manchuria by Russians.

Washington, Nov. 3.—China has appealed to the United States for assistance in checking Russia's designs in Manchuria. In reply Secretary Hay has replied that until the ratification of the American-Chinese treaty, which was signed on Oct. 8, pledging to the world the opening of Mukden and Antung, it will be impossible for this government, in view of its traditional policy of steering clear of foreign alliances, to protest against Russia's continued occupation of Manchuria.

It has been pointed out to China that the time for American interference has not yet come. It is expected that the commercial treaty, which should arrive at Washington soon, will be ratified at the extra session of congress, when the United States will be in a position to insist on a strict regard for her treaty rights throughout China.

The Pekin government has been told that infringement by Russia of American treaty rights in Manchuria will furnish the Washington government the opportunity for at least a reiteration of its desire for the preservation of the integrity of China.

There is no question that the reoccupation of Mukden is not looked upon by friendly eyes by the officials here, but so long as the United States secures and retains trade in Manchuria it will not be drawn into the political complication of the present situation.

Japan has instituted a vigorous investigation regarding the extent and character of Russia's reoccupation of Mukden. The Japanese minister said, however, that the negotiations between Russia and Japanese officials were so far as Japan is concerned, strictly in accord with the Anglo-Japanese alliance.

by America.

London, Nov. 3.—The release from custody of James L. Lynchehaun by Federal Commissioner Moores at Indianapolis on Saturday on the ground that, while Lynchehaun's crime was brutal, it was nevertheless of a political nature, is adversely commented upon by some of the newspapers here, the Globe claiming that politics influenced the decision. That paper says:

"The next assassin of a president will plead Commissioner Moores's judgment with irresistible force if he escapes across the Canadian line. The Americans will have no cause for complaint if the result throws out of gear the whole machinery of extradition between the United States and Great Britain."

The Pall Mall Gazette remarks: "By the same reasoning used by Commissioner Moores it would always be possible to refuse the extradition of anarchists guilty of the most dastardly crimes."

Stamp Collectors' Organ

ASKS PUBLICITY

Madden Would Like To Have All the Charges
Against Him Made Public.

Washington, Nov. 3.—That an investigation is being made of charges involving the office of Third Assistant Postmaster General Madden in connection with the speculation of philatelists in certain valuable specimen postage stamps has been admitted by Postmaster General Payne.

The charges were made in a philatelic organ in April, 1902, but were only brought to the attention of the president and postmaster general, it is said, Oct. 30, when an investigation was ordered immediately.

Madden's Statement.
Mr. Madden gave out a statement in which he said:

"I court the fullest and most searching investigation. It will show the absolute falsity of such charges. There has not been, during my administration, a single stamp sold, or a single proof of a stamp sold by me to any collector or to any other person whatsoever. Any statement to the contrary is false."

Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Briskot, who has charge of the postal investigation, was closeted with Mr. Madden, presumably in connection with the published statements, but he declined to discuss the matter.

No Direct Charges.
Postmaster General Payne said that while the charges made in the philatelic organ were not directed against Mr. Madden, the allegations involved his office.

The cases of A. W. Machon, Diller B. and Samuel A. Groff, and George E. and Martha Lorenz, indicted on charges of conspiracy in connection with the sale of letter-box fasteners to the Postoffice Department, were set for trial on Nov. 23, in Criminal court No. 1 of the District of Columbia.

New York, Nov. 3.—George W. Beavers, the indicted former postal official, was formally committed by Commissioner Hitchcock to the custody of the United States marshal, pending the action of United States Circuit Judge Holt on the warrant for the removal of Beavers to the jurisdiction of the eastern circuit of New York for trial on the Brooklyn indictment. He was admitted by Judge Holt to $5,000 bail pending the court's decision. Application by Beavers' counsel for additional subpoenas directing United States District Attorney Youngs of Brooklyn and his stenographer to produce certain records of the grand jury in Brooklyn, which returned the indictment against Beavers was refused by Commissioner Hitchcock.

NORTH MAIN A BUSY AVENUE

WITH ITS PRODUCTS OF THE FARM AND FORGE.

A VISIT TO THE FACTORIES

A. C. Kent & Co. to Build 30,000
Corn Planters—F. B. Strickler

Regards Big Barn as an Index.

North Main street hums with industry these days. It is manufacturing cigar-boxes, hay-carriers, corn seeders, snow-shovels, punches and shears, and big castings. It is loading box cars with wheat, oats and corn; and big gondolas with sugar beets.

John Thoroughgood & Co.

There is no more prosperous factory on the avenue than that of John Thoroughgood & Co. Seventy or more men are employed in manufacturing cigar-boxes and carloads of bass wood and red cedar from the south are arriving every day. The orders for Christmas styles are commencing to come in and this means increased work from now until the holidays.

The Hay & Tool Co.

At the warehouse of the Rock River Hay & Tool Co. the many styles of hay-carriers are being put together and the various lines of blocks and pulleys, adjustable rakes, and similar every day necessities on the farm are being overhauled that they may be in readiness for the spring business. Manager F. B. Strickler has three agents covering a territory that extends from the Great Lakes to the Ohio and Missouri rivers. Mr. Strickler gauges his territory by the big barns. The best farming country in Wisconsin, working on this hypothesis, is in a strip extending from Madison to Monroe and inhabited by a people of German parentage who build their mammoth barns first and their modest homes afterwards. These people have great herds of blooded cattle, much sought for in the markets.

The New Doty Works.

Fifty-four men are busily engaged in making the big castings at the New Doty Works. Three additional men were taken on Monday morning and a dozen more are wanted, but difficult to procure. Some large rush orders have been received which will keep the men hustling for several weeks.

Milwaukee Elevator Co.

Large quantities of wheat and corn are being received by the Milwaukee Elevator Co. and loaded on cars for shipment. Barley is a little "off" in price and farmers are holding it back, in the hope of better quotations. Manager J. L. Fletcher says that the oat crop in this region, taken as a whole, has been disappointing. The excessive wet weather during the summer caused the oats to run to stalks and the grain has a meager and unprosperous appearance. There are some exceptions to the rule and a consignment of extra fine grain was received Monday afternoon.

Rock River Machine Co.

Business is good at the Rock River Machine Co.'s plant. There are twenty-four men employed at present and large quantities of punches and shears are being turned out.

A. C. Kent & Co.

Thirty thousand corn planters will be built this season by A. C. Kent & Co. This is several thousand more than last year's output. The concern will also manufacture about ten thousand snow-shovels. Fourteen men are at work. The nine hour schedule commenced Monday and will continue until April. M. D. Taylor is setting up some new machines but none but the men employed in constructing them may know just what they are for at this time.

TROLLEY HORROR JUST AVERTED

Leaves on the Interurban Tracks in Beloit Cause Much Trouble.

Owing to the mass of leaves which covered the interurban track in Beloit having been worked into a soft pulp the trolley car Beloit due in this city at nine-fifty Monday morning, nearly met with an accident that would not only have put the car itself out of business but also might have caused a severe loss of life. As it was only the coolness of the motorman and conductor averted a panic and serious damage to the car.

Struck Engine

The accident occurred at Roosevelt avenue, Beloit, just as the car was starting on its run to Janesville yesterday morning. The car slowed down at the crossing and the motorman put on the brakes thinking to bring it to a stop to allow a switch engine to pass the crossing. Instead of stopping the car simply ground the leaves on the track into a pulp and with no purchase for the brakes slid into the moving engine hitting it in the middle of the boiler. The compact broke the fender of the trolley car and damaged the engine somewhat.

Continues Trip

The many passengers on the car were horror stricken at the accident and a panic would have resulted had it not been for the coolness of the motorman and conductor who quickly pacified the frightened passengers. The car proceeded on its trip to Janesville.

ZION HOSTS ARE COMING HOME NOW

Half the Original Army of Crusaders
Have Left Gotham for Home,
Sweet Home.

During the past summer many Janesville people visited John Alexander Dowie's city by Lake Michigan when he calls Zion City. They saw the buildings, the lace factory, the big hotel and all the workings of the Dowies. Since Elijah Second started on his crusade to purify New York many have watched with interest just what would be the outcome. It has been a failure. Dismal failure and the following dispatch from New York explains itself:

Dowie's "restoration host" has shaken the dust of New York from its feet. It was a sadder but a wiser lot of crusaders that pulled out of the city on the way back to Zion City. Special trains were run over various roads to take the followers of Elijah II. back to Zion. When they went to New York the party was 4,000 strong. There had been so many who became disgusted with their lack of success and had gone home early, that only 2,000 were taken back yesterday.

Dowie's managers generously distributed four sandwiches and some crackers to each of the host, which the last food they receive until they will be the last food they receive until they reach Zion.

There was never a worse looking lot of individuals leaving this city than the worn and tired crusaders.

If the patients in all the hospitals were turned loose at once and escorted to the railroad stations they could not have looked more forlorn and ill. It has cost each one of the 4,000 an average of $50 for railroad fare, two weeks' board, lodging and incidentals. In addition to this personal expense it is estimated that Dowie himself has spent $125,000 out of the church funds.

The net result of the two weeks' crusade has been the baptism of fifty-seven persons. As a matter of fact only twelve of these came from New York.

When Dowie saw that his mission was to be a disastrous failure he hurriedly drafted into service all of the children from Zion that had not been baptised and ordered them to be immersed in his Madison Square Garden tank.

Dowie and a few church officers and members of his choir will remain in New York this week to try and conduct a mass meeting in Carnegie Hall with the hope of bracing up the few followers who live in that city.

LITTLE INTEREST IN POLO

No Games Have Been Arranged for This Winter.

There was an excellent crowd at the roller skating rink last evening and the whirl of many pairs of skates kept time to the inspiring music of the Imperial band. Much enthusiasm is evinced in the sport this year. It is thought that there will be no polo games this season as the teams in this section are scattered and less interest is taken in the game than usual. As yet no matches have been arranged.

Apples Good.

Apples remain about the same in the Janesville market and are of general quality this year. In some sections the prices have gone upward. It is believed that these prices are not inflated, as detailed reports from the middle west indicate a serious shortage of crops. Illinois, Kansas, and Missouri are the chief sufferers. It is estimated that Illinois has ten per cent. off a crop; Arkansas and Missouri 25; Michigan, 60; Nebraska, 35; Ohio, 85; and Kansas, 20. Eastern states are expected to produce the usual supply and the western coast states are not far behind. The national yield is estimated at 42,000,000 barrels and may be as low as 40,000,000. Michigan, Virginia and New York will be the apple states this year. The New England crop is of inferior quality. Canada's supply is excellent but there is little for export.

Steadily on Market.

Fairly good oranges have been sold round in Janesville for the first time in several years. During the past week the new crops have come to the local market and oranges will now hold a leading position during the coming eight months. The new arrivals come from various quarters. Lake California, Valencia, green skinned but sweet, and finely flavored. Mexicans prove the best sellers at from 30 to 40 cents per dozen. Florida and Jamaica oranges sell fairly at equal prices but are too tart to be popular.

Pears Poor.

Table pears are a rarity just now and the quality is distinctly poor. All the better varieties are out of the market and the outlook is unsatisfactory. Mushrooms grown in Indiana and Illinois cellars and bought in Chicago can sometimes be found at a few groceries. Each individual plant is about two inches wide across the hood and it requires several dozen to weigh a pound. Epicures are willing to pay 65 cents per pound for the imported mushrooms for the latter are certain to be nonpoisonous. Locally raised head lettuce is about off the market. Home grown spinach at 20 cents a peck deserves the good sale which it is enjoying. The quality is excellent.

Poultry Will Be High.

Rather high prices prevail now-a-days in the poultry market. Dealers say that there will be no decrease but an advance is altogether likely. There is good local cause for poultry is exceedingly scarce throughout Rock county. Turkeys are especially few and far between. One reason for this is that Rock county, and most of the middle west district, have been "sold out" of poultry during the past two years. A more powerful cause for turkey and chicken scarcity has been the damp chilly summer which caused great losses to growers. There are few geese and ducks.

Fear Rot.

There are plenty of potatoes on the market, so the dealers say, but the retailers keep from buying, fearing the tubers will rot. The local stock is still being bought by the grocers.

Men.

North-Western Road.
Neil Sullivan who has charge of the roundhouse "store" returned last night from a hunting and fishing trip to Lake Koshkonong. He says that the crew of men who are conducting the war on carp tore out thirty-five feet of their net on a snag yesterday afternoon and the catch only amounted to a hont-load. There were some "big ones" in the catch, however, and a sucker and a dogfish weighing about fifty pounds each were transferred to the pens. Shipments will commence this week. The men have sent for a new net five feet wide and a mile and a half long. They expect now to work all winter.

The report of the finding of five dynamite bombs near the spot where Fireman Louis Ernest was shot last Friday night, which emanated from Chicago, was generally discredited by the railroad men in the yards. It is pointed out that half an hour after the attack occurred a rumor spread to the effect that Engineer Elbette had shot the fireman because he did not shovel coal fast enough. The men are therefore "from Missouri" on the dynamite story.

Locomotive 568 of the Watertown run had a new pair of wheels put under her this morning. The wheels are warranted for 60,000 miles but their life is seldom that long. When a wheel becomes flat on a locomotive it must be removed immediately. In the case of freight cars, however, the change is less imperative.

A new time-table folder of the St. Paul road, containing the revised hours for the arrival and departure of trains, was issued yesterday.

A slight error was made in a little sketch of General Foreman J. C. Fox that appeared in this column Saturday. With November he entered upon the fifty-third year of his identification with the St. Paul road, having completed his fifty-second year with the expiration of October.

BASKETBALL HAS ALREADY BEGUN

Have Arranged a League
To Play.

That considerable interest is being shown by members of the Junior department of the Y. M. C. A. was manifested last Saturday when grade B was formed into basket ball teams. Three teams were organized as follows: Reds; E. Dreyer, Capt.; F. Hennison, R. Crissy, R. Cunningham, F. Wower; Whites; E. Strang, Capt.; F. Booth, S. Richards, O. Erickson, W. Melsner; Blues, S. Campbell, Capt.; V. Koch, W. Mills, R. Chase, S. Smith. A short schedule has been arranged, the games to be played on Saturday mornings. The regular class work is carried on in the same order as the evening classes that is divided into grades, each grade under a separate leader. A strong work can thus be built up.

CASSON'S PLACE WILL BE SAVED

Congressman Adams Will Work for Reappointment for Badger Sergeant at Arms of the House.

Despite many rumors to the contrary with all probability Col. Henry Casson will be appointed sergeant-at-arms of the House of Representatives when it convenes in Washington this week. Col. Casson and Congressman Adams of Dane county left on Sunday night for Washington and before leaving it was announced that the canvas made by Mr. Adams in Mr. Casson's behalf had resulted in an assurance that he would be re-elected when congress convenes.

The republican caucus preliminary to the house organization for the special session will be held on Saturday night. For the house offices there are likely to be few changes, and there is no doubt of the reelection of Col. Casson. The home officers are nominated in the party caucus and the nominations are ratified on the first day of the session by the formal action of the house. The offices' pay from $3,500 to $5,000 a year, and that of Col. Casson's is one of the most desirable.

It is hoped that all invited will be present and become better acquainted so that the business interests of the place may be more closely allied and thereby bring more business to Milton." After making a tour of the building and noting the well furnished rooms, the guests were seated in the dining room and lunch served. After doing ample justice to this pleasant feature of the occasion T. A. Saunders was called to the chair and the advisability and necessity of a business men's organization was fully discussed, every one present taking part therein and it was unanimously agreed that the time had come when such an organization should be perfected, and W. W. Clarke, W. K. Davis and G. R. Boss, were appointed a committee to prepare and report, at a future meeting plans for the formation of such an association. On motion of W. P. COAL IMPORTATIONS.

The importations of coal into the United States during the first nine months of the present calendar year have amounted to 2,687,081 tons, against 1,541,112 tons in the corresponding year, an increase of 1,145,969 tons. The rebate of duty on coal authorized by congress in January, 1903, went into operation January 14, so that the figures for the nine months of 1903 represent the importation of coal free of duty during practically all of that period compared with the corresponding period of the preceding year, in which the importations of bituminous coal were dutiable. The figures here quoted as presented by the Department of Commerce and Labor through its Bureau of Statistics, include both bituminous and anthracite coal, but as the total imports of anthracite in the nine months of 1903 amounted to but 137,248 tons, the chief increase is in bituminous. This increase of 1,140,000 tons chiefly in coal from the United Kingdom, from which the imports of bituminous coal during the nine months ending with September 1903, amounted to 1,105,951 tons against 73,243 in the corresponding nine months of 1902. From Canada which the Bureau of Statistics designates as "British North America" the ending with September, 1903 amounted to 6,314,189 tons against 4,720,330 tons in the corresponding months of last year, an increase of 1,593,859 tons.

The foreign commerce of the United States in coal, whether of imports or exports, is extremely small compared with the domestic production, in which the United States now exceeds any other country in the world. Importations of coal have never reached as much as 2 million tons in a single year prior to the fiscal year 1903, when they were 3,610,225 tons, or a little more than 1 per cent of the domestic production, while the highest figure ever reached in exports was in 1901, when it amounted to 7,675,649 tons. The relative importance of the imports or exports to the coal production from the mines of the United States is shown by the figures of coal production as reported from year to year by the Geological survey, which shows that the total coal production in the last year was 269 million long tons, the quantity being about the same as 1901, in which year the figures were quoted as 261,873,675 tons.

The total imports of bituminous coal for the nine months ending with September, 1903, were 1,225,394 tons against 1,195,869 tons in the corresponding months of the preceding year, an increase of but 29,525 tons from Canada. From other countries the imports are of course extremely small, the largest item aside from the United Kingdom and Canada being Japan, from which 50,784 tons were imported in the nine months of 1903 against 8,176 in the corresponding months of 1902, and other Asia and Oceania 303,626 against 259,951 in the corresponding months of 1902. Thus nearly all the increase in the importations of coal in the present year under the rebate of duty authorized in January has been from the United Kingdom, while the total increase, as already indicated, amounted to 1,140,969 tons.

Meantime the exportation of coal has increased more than the importation. The total coal exported from the United States in the nine months,

CANADA ANGRY.

In the first bitterness of their disappointment at the results of the Alaskan boundary award some of the Canadians are indulging in comments which they will probably themselves soon confess to be exaggerated. That their desires have unconsciously misled them into giving a greater weight to their claims than the facts justified was only natural. It is even possible that some of those acquainted with the points in dispute while considering that Canada had only a fighting chance, have been induced to mislead the less well-informed as to the merits of their contention, to exaggerate its importance and to suppress or belittle the American case. The result has been a rude awakening for all but the initiated, and they are hardly in a position to confess their previous doubts, says the St. Paul Pioneer Press.

There is, however, another explanation of the violent outburst against England and the United States. Just as no newspapers would publish accounts of murders and catastrophes if they were the rule instead of the exception, the news value of Canadian comment on this boundary decision lies largely in the amount of ginger and jingling with which it is flavored. The louder and more bitter comments are sure to be printed and are liable to be taken as representative of the Canadian attitude in general, though nine out of ten Canadians might be inwardly convinced of the impartiality and justice of Lord Alverstone's findings.

There is therefore some reason to doubt whether Canada is so excited as she is made to appear, or whether Canada's relations with Great Britain will be in any degree affected by the incident, in spite of the assertion that it will give a great impetus to Canadian independence. The fact is that even the Canadians who are most bitter in their denunciation, who can see in Lord Alverstone's decision only the outcome of a deliberate plot to sacrifice Canada to the United States, would not give any consideration to independence. If that question were seriously under discussion, Canada has practically nothing to gain and a good deal to lose. Enjoying the protection of the British prestige, without being taxed a penny for expenses, and yet enjoying all the benefits of absolute independence except for the nominal control of a governor appointed by the crown, she would only weaken herself by setting up a government independent in name as well as in fact, and would have to bear the burdens of fleets and armies for her defense. Moreover, there is a more or less latent pride in the empire which would outweigh any slight much more serious and much more real than the fancied wrong of the Alaskan decision.

It is therefore safe to say that so far as the mother country is concerned, its relations with Canada will not be in the least affected, not only because there is no occasion for offense but because there are too many factors operating in favor of a continuance of the present relations. But with the United States the case is different. While Lord Alverstone comes in for a large share of Canadian abuse, the United States will not soon be forgiven for appointing advocates rather than judges. In connection with other causes of irritation, and coming at a time when it appears to be fashionable in Canada to pluck the eagle's tail feathers, the incident is not likely to improve Canadian feeling, except in so far as it settles definitely one of the several questions in dispute between the two countries.

NOVEMBER OPENS FINE AS JUNE

Mild Weather Marks the First of the Eleventh Month of the Present Year.

The month of November opened as fine as June, as meek and pleasant as a lamb. The thermometer yesterday registered as high as 63 degrees. However, an unlimited amount of cold waves may be anticipated before the month is over. Snow storms and the forming of ice on lakes are probable.

October, on the whole, was a pleasant month. Especially fine weather marked the closing days, or rather the Indian summer. Some days and nights were exceedingly cold with the temperature as low as 30 degrees. Vegetation stood unusually long before freezing. The blasty winds wrought great activity among the coal dealers and hardware merchants although the past few days were so mild that a fire in the furnace or coal stove was really not necessary.

The total precipitation during the past month was 2.18 inches or 1.02 inches greater than that of the corresponding month in 1902. The largest rainfall occurred October 7, when 1.12 inches fell.

Robert Tobin died at one o'clock today at Palmer hospital, aged 68 years. He leaves one daughter and two sons. The remains will be taken to Jefferson this evening. The burial service will be read there at nine o'clock Thursday forenoon.

NO OPTION ON HOTEL MYERS

As Yet No Plans Have Been Made Toward Opening Famous Hostelry.

When interviewed this morning concerning the statement in a morning paper that an option had been secured by several business men on the Hotel Myers, C. S. Jackson denied that there was any ground for such statements. He said that several men had looked over the property to ascertain its condition, but that no option had been secured and no plans made.

Another gentleman who is in a position to know, said that the proposition of purchasing the estate had been considered and that arrangements had been made to secure the services of an outside architect, to draw plans and make estimates on the remodeling of the structure. He said further that it was the opinion of several east side business men that something ought to be done towards opening the hotel.

ESCAPED LUNATIC STILL AT LARGE

THOUGHT TO HAVE MADE FOR NORTHERN WISCONSIN.

NO TRACE OF THE WANDERER

Sheriffs Throughout the State Are Watching for Ex-Convict—He Will Be Nabbed.

Thomas Malbon, the escaped lunatic is still at large. Superintendent Killam believes that he has gone to the northern part of the state to work on some farm and does not think that there is any danger of the man bothering any Rock county residents.

Wanted to Go North
Before Malbon left the county asylum he often spoke of wanting to go north and it is believed that he managed to get out of Rock county without being seen. The superintendent has one other theory in connection with the disappearance of Malbon. He might have secured a job on some farm in Rock or Dane counties and as long as he kept quiet on the place there would be little likelihood of his being heard from, according to Mr. Killam.

One Chance
The idea is that if he did get work as suggested, but spent much time in neighboring towns, there would be considerable chance of his capture in the near future as he was a talkative fellow and would soon give himself away.

Not Ugly
Malbon showed no signs of being desperate or ugly while at the asylum and in the opinion of those who had charge of him, there is absolutely no cause for alarm as the man is harmless and has showed a quiet disposition. Every sheriff and marshal in the state has been notified of the escape and some of the towns in northern Illinois as well have been aware that Malbon is loose.

WILLIAM TRIPP; MANY ANCESTORS

Well Known Rock County Man Who Comes of Colonial Blue
Blood Stock.

William H. Tripp, one of the staunchest old settlers in Rock county and the truest of blue republicans, has just received a book from Scranton, Pennsylvania, which gives a genealogical table of all the Tripps in America. Mr. Tripp was born in Scranton, Pa., eighty-three years ago and if he and his wife live until the fourteenth of January next will celebrate their sixtieth wedding anniversary. Mr. Tripp is one of the substantial farmers of the town of Rock and is perhaps more noted for the mahogany sidewalk, which is in front of his house, than for anything else. This is the only mahogany sidewalk in Wisconsin and is more than a novelty.

Old Colonial Stock
Mr. Tripp is a descendant of one John Tripp, a carpenter, who came over from England in 1638 and settled in Portsmouth, N. H. It is interesting to note that Mr. Tripp is a descendant of Isaac Tripp, whose grand-daughter, Frances Sloum, was captured by the Miami Indians when but five years old and was found sixty years later a perfect Indian in all respects, living in an Indian settlement in Indiana.

Send Picture
Mr. Tripp is now purposing sending his picture framed in a mahogany frame made from his wonderful sidewalk to the State Historical society of Pennsylvania at Scranton. In the genealogy Mr. Tripp is given considerable space and the fact that he came to Rock county in 1851 and has held many positions of trust and confidence is all set forth.

CHARITY BALL ON FRIDAY EVENING

Was Postponed From Last Week
Owing to Mr. Stevens' Death.

On Friday evening of this week the charity ball of the Attie Angels of Madison is to be held in Madison. It was originally planned to hold the dance last Friday evening, but owing to the sudden death of Hon. Broeze J. Stevens of Madison it was postponed a week. Many Janesville people have been invited to attend and will doubtless go up on the Friday afternoon train and returning Saturday.

After the supper at the Congregational church Wednesday evening Rev. R. C. Denison will give an illustrated talk on Tennyson. The pictures were selected by Mr. Denison in England during his different visits. This will be a free lecture and all interested in the study of Tennyson should come.

SUGAR FACTORY IS NEEDED HERE

600 ACRES PLANTED TO BEETS
NEAR JANESVILLE.

FALLS FACTORY IS GUOTED

Emil Schultz Tells of John Rice's
Fourteen Pounder and of His Own
Experiments with Domestic Seeds.

"Janesville will need a beet-sugar factory of her own if business keeps up at this rate," said Emil Schultz, whose farm is located on Milton avenue about two miles and a half from the city. "The Menominee Falls factory has called a halt on its unit next week. They are getting more than they can take care of."

A Fourteen-Pounder
While Mr. Schultz was talking he was heaving shovels-full of handsome four-pound beets into a half-filled car that lay on the North Main street tracks just in front of four others that were loaded to the brims. "These are from John Rice's farm. It is the best lot I have seen. One beet we loaded this morning weighed 14½ pounds."

Big Increase in Acreage
Mr. Rice, whose farm is also on Milton avenue, planted this year, three acres that were turned from soil to tobacco land last year. It is estimated that his average yield will amount to from twenty to thirty tons and that he will clear from $115 to $150 an acre after freight and all other expenses are paid. The same land grew a ton of tobacco per acre last year. Last year there were about 45 acres planted to sugar beets in the neighborhood of Janesville. This year there are over 600.

Home-Grown Seed
Up to this year all the seed furnished by the factory has come from Germany. This year some experiments were tried with home-grown seed. Mr. Schultz has used some of it on his farm. He says that the seed came up three days sooner than the imported article, that the beets ripened sooner, and that they were equal if not superior to the "foreigners" grown alongside. The beets are turned up with a plough. It requires from seven to eight days to harvest an acre. The large cars hold thirty tons.

...Forty Years Ago...

Janesville Daily Gazette, Tuesday, November 3, 1863.—The election is progressing in this state as we write. The day is beautiful and the skies propitious. We accept the omen as a harbinger of victory to the Union cause. We hope the day's work will be so well done that the copperhead nuisance will be cleared out of the way, never to cumber the ground again. While Union men are voting today, they acknowledge but one common idea, and that is the preservation of the Union. What kind of a Union it shall be they have not indicated by their state convention, nor through the mouths of their acknowledged candidates. In Ohio the gallant Brough proclaimed it a free Union, and that slavery having taken up arms against the country, should be utterly destroyed.—There has been no such issue in Wisconsin, as conventions and candidates have ignored the question entirely. In Ohio the verdict of the people has been rendered for the integrity and unity of the country and against the evil institution which has been the cause of all our woes. They will not be called upon to go over the ground again. It is settled there. The people have had bold and wise leaders, and have killed the copperhead party, and buried it with slavery in one common grave.

LAW DECISIONS FOR LAYMEN

Recent Court Rulings That Will Interest the Busy Reader Very Much.

The recent war in South Africa is responsible for some additions to the small number of actual decisions on the subject of soldiers' wills. In the latest case it appears that the colonel of a regiment on active service instructed his officers to ascertain from the men the names of their next of kin and how they wished to dispose of their effects in the event of their death. One private made the following declaration, which was reduced to writing: "In the event of my death in South Africa, I desire all my effects to be credited to my sister Nellie." It was contended that the man did not understand what he was doing and was merely obeying orders, but the court held that the declaration was valid as a soldier's will. Whether the deceased man, however, intended to dispose of all of his personal property, or only of his medals and odds and ends of portable property, is a question which the court left open for future consideration. (London Law Journal.)

Question as to the Proper Conduct of a Trial.

In Jones vs. State, 44 Southwestern Rep. 877. It was held that it was not improper for the judge, for the purpose of informing himself as to the probability of the jury being able to agree upon a verdict, to inquire of the individual jurors as to whether there was any likelihood of an agreement. When the judge is informed by some of the jurors that there is no likelihood of an agreement, and by others that it is doubtful whether an agreement can be reached, it is not error for the judge to say: "Well, you are sensible men. I do not wish to force you to make a verdict, but I will stay with you the day. Retire to your room and see if you can agree upon a verdict."

Maintenance of Cemeteries.

In Palmer vs. Hickory Grove cemetery, 82 N. Y. Supplement 973. It was held that cemeteries are universally regarded as within the proper scope of the police power of the state, and that anyone who is especially injured or is threatened with injury by reason of the maintenance of a cemetery has a right to question the legality of the steps taken by the corporation in pursuance of the powers granted, and to have the aid of the court in preventing any unlawful act by which this right may be prejudiced. In Brassch vs. cemetery Association 55 Northwestern Rep. 616. It was held that a court of equity will enjoin the use of a tract of land for cemetery purposes so situated that the burial of the dead there will injure life or health, either by corrupting the surrounding atmosphere or the water of wells or springs. But it was further held that a burial ground near dwellings is not necessarily a nuisance, and the court will only interfere and enjoin its use on clear and convincing proof of probable injury.

Insurance Policies. The Supreme court of Appeals of Virginia has recently decided the existence of a mortgage on property insured does not violate a condition of the policy of insurance providing that the entire policy shall be void "if the interest of the insured be other than unconditional and sole ownership, or if the subject of insurance be personal property, and he or she become encumbered by a chattel mortgage." 44 Southeastern Rep. 898.

Fortress Monroe, Nov. 2.—The Richmond Whig of the 31st contains the following dispatch: Charleston, Oct. 30.—The bombardment of Fort Sumpter today is the heaviest that has ever taken place. From sundown Wednesday to sundown Thursday, 1,250 shots from 15-inch mortars and 300-pounder Parrotts have been thrown against the fort. Our loss is seven wounded. This evening the enemy opened fire from the mortar battery at Cummings' Point upon the northeast angle of the fort, which seems to be the special object of their attention. The enemy's batteries engaged were those at Gregg and Wagner, the centre battery and Cummings' Point battery, with the addition of three monitors. The bombardment of Sumpter still goes on, but the fire is much slacker; our batteries fire slowly and deliberately. The enemy at present pays no attention to them.

The great ram Dunderberg, now being built in New York, is 378 feet long, 68 feet wide, and 32 feet deep, with an armour 6½ feet thick, formed of timber and 4½ inches of iron. BLAMES CREW
FOR DISASTER

SPECIAL HAD RIGHT OF WAY

Conductor Says He Obeyed His Orders and Carried Out the Schedule Faithfully — Yardmaster's Office Knew Nothing of the Extra.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 3.—The responsibility for the Big Four wreck in which sixteen students of Purdue university were killed, has been fixed upon the crew of the Purdue special. Officers of the railway company have completed their inquiry and this is the result of the evidence they obtained. "There is no question in my mind," said General Superintendent J. Q. Van Winkle, "that the special train crew was to blame for the accident. It was running an extra train and the men in charge should have had it under control inside the yard limits. There is nothing further to say regarding the responsibility for the accident."

Train Runs Too Fast.

The consensus of opinion among railroad men seems to be that the special was running too fast to be under any sort of control. Yardmaster Hicks says it is a rule of the yard for engineers running extra trains to go slowly through the yards when there is a possibility of colliding with other trains. Supt. Van Winkle declined to say what action would be taken by the company toward the crew of the wrecked train.

Railroad men are reluctant to discuss the wreck. They have been ordered to maintain the strictest silence. One railroad man declared that the blame for the wreck rested with the dispatcher's office at Kankakee. He said the local crews received their orders from this office, but Mr. Parquette denies this.

Had Right of Way.

"I can't believe that either myself or my engineer is responsible," said Conductor Johnson. "My orders were to leave Lafayette at 8 o'clock and to arrive in Indianapolis at 9:47. I carried out this schedule faithfully, my train making good time even with its heavy load, although we were perhaps ten minutes late. I know this much absolutely. My train was given the right of way over all trains between Lafayette and Indianapolis, as my filmy will show."

All the trainmen on the freight declare that the crew knew nothing of any special from Lafayette and it is said that the conductor, Lon Akers, as soon the collision occurred rushed to the nearest telephone and called on the Big Four yards at Shelby street. He got Yardmaster J. Q. Hicks' office and said that his train had been hit by a special.

Knew Nothing of Special.

The railroad men declare that the yardmaster's office knew nothing of the Purdue special, which information should have been given by the train dispatcher at Kankakee.

The coroner began his investigation but no new facts were brought out. Four of the thirty-four injured lying in the hospitals are in a critical condition. They are John C. Taylor of Lafayette, Hendricks Johnson of Evansville, H. O. Wright of Pendleton, Ind., and L. G. Smith of Lafayette. Others are no worse.

Woman Commits Suicide at Charlotte, Mich., and Man Departs.

Charlotte, Mich., Nov. 3.—Miss Mabel Sturtevant of Gillett, Pa., hanged herself in her room at the Phoenix hotel. She recently made an unsuccessful attempt to end her life at a hotel in Eaton Rapids. The woman was in love with Clerk Copeland of the Williams house. Copeland left town and has not been seen since. His effort to get rid of her is responsible for her tragic end.

NOVEMBER TENTH OPENS THE SEASON

Deer Are Reported To Be Plentiful
Throughout Northern Wisconsin and Michigan.

The deer season will open in Wisconsin one week from today. According to reports from the northern part of the state deer are more plentiful this year than for several years past, and it is expected that the number of hunters who will go to the northern Wisconsin and Michigan woods will be greater than ever.

Still Closed
Deer cannot be hunted in Fond du Lac, Sheboygan, Manitowoc, or Calumet counties at any time, while in Sauk, Adams, Richland, Columbia and Marquette counties the season will not open until Nov. 20. In all other counties the season will open Nov. 10 and will close in all counties Nov. 30. This gives twenty days for the sport.

The Law
The state game laws prohibit the hunting of deer with the aid of dogs, on ice or by means of pitfalls, traps or artificial lights. The killing of more than two deer in a season by one person is also prohibited. The license for non-residents is $25 for the season.

The opening of the small game season Sunday took many Janesville people out into the country. While ducks were fairly plentiful, the best sport was found in shooting rabbits. There were many of them and most of the hunters returned with full bags. The closed season for rabbits has been a good thing for hunting and the animals are large and well fed.

HE SAYS HE CAN'T TRAVEL BY WIRE

A Badger Editor in Porto Rico So
Tells the Court Officials.

Many graduates of the university law school in recent years remember Hobart S. Bird, son of Col. Bird of Madison. Mr. Bird graduated from the law school after taking a course on the hill and after the capture of Porto Rico at the close of the Spanish-American war settled in San Juan where he conducted a newspaper. Since his first paper started Mr. Bird has been in trouble with the authorities for one reason or another. He is now in jail in San Juan serving a sentence for contempt of court and has several libel suits to answer for as soon as he appears outside the jail doors. The following is a clipping from a newspaper explaining one reason for Mr. Bird's incarceration:

"No le Chocaria a Vd. a ull Director de Periodico viajando port Tel-egrafo como Noticias."

The above sentence is a product of one of the Spanish-American islands recently acquired by the United States. It was published in the San Juan News, of which Hobart S. Bird, a Madison, Wis., man, is editor, and it represents his outburst at what he deems an injustice. Interpreted into English the above quotation reads as follows:

"Wouldn't it far you to see an editor travel by telegraph like news?" Bird's paper appeared on Oct. 15 with an account of the action which had been taken against him by the Porto Rican courts. On one column of the first page was the above quotation in English, and on the other it was published in Spanish. The story as told in the English columns of the paper reads as follows:

"The excuse which the editor presented to the court for his failure to appear when summoned by telegraph was one which no court could ignore and proceed to convict the accused without trial and without a hearing. When Mr. Bird was shown the telegram from the president of the Mayaguez District court, directed to the chief of insular police at San Juan directing him to summon the editor to appear before the Mayaguez court on the morning of October 13, at 9 o'clock, he immediately replied by telegraph to the president of the court, informing him that before he had been summoned for Mayaguez the San Juan district court had summoned him to appear before it on a charge of criminal libel at 9 o'clock on the morning of October 12. As the earliest hour when he could appear before the Mayaguez court after appearing in San Juan on Monday would be after 7 o'clock Tuesday night, there being no means of faster transportation, unless he went by telegraph, Mr. Bird informed the president of the Mayaguez court that he was compelled to obey the first order served upon him."

"Mr. Bird was also summoned to the chief of insular police at San Juan for the afternoon of that day."

Bird was sentenced to jail for contempt of court.
